

PIT RULES

- 1 Any fighting or reckless driving in the pit area or on the race track will subject the offender to suspension. The seriousness of the incident will be determined by the Race/Competition Director. Any other offenses from the said individual will result in fines, suspension or both from the Southeast Super Truck Series.
- 2 Any person entering into a pit area other than their own where a disturbance of any kind occurs will be considered to be at fault. Stay in your own with your own!
- 3 Fighting will not be tolerated anywhere on the speedway grounds or access roads, no matter what the provocation. Rough driving, swearing, obscene language and/or gestures will not be tolerated and will be regarded as unsportsmanlike conduct and subject to disciplinary action. If fighting should occur, both parties and/or crew will be subject to immediate ejection.
- 4 When in the pit area, maintain a constant watch for your own protection. Drivers and/or crew members operating race trucks in the pit area shall do so maintaining a safe speed. You will follow the traffic pattern set forth by the Race/Competition Director. Failure to comply will result in disciplinary action set forth by the Race/Competition Director. The first offense will be a Verbal Warning and the second offense will result in a fine.
- 5 All drivers must line up their trucks in the staging area designated by the Race Director immediately when asked. Anyone who fails to comply in a timely manner is subject to starting in the rear of the field.
- 6 The above said rules have been set by the Southeast Super Truck Series Committee. All rules are subject to change by the Committee at any time, but drivers will be notified of any changes
