

PROTEST PROCEDURES

- 1 The Southeast Super Trucks Series reserves the right to inspect any truck at any time. It is the drivers responsibility to have the truck available for inspection by the Southeast Super Trucks Race/Competition Director or any other Staff member.
- 2 Protests must be made in writing within twenty minutes of race completion and turned in to the Race/Competition Director ONLY. All protests are CASH ONLY. Protests must be filed by either the truck owner or the driver ONLY.
- 3 Protest fees must be turned into the Race/Competition Director at the time the protest is filed. Protest fees are as follows:
  - Cylinder Head and Intake removal: $300.00
  - Bottom end of engines will be an additional $500.00
  - Shock Claim Rule: $115.00 per shock not including hardware.
You may only claim up to three (3) per event.-See Shock section for claim procedures.
  - MSD Ignition Box Claim Rule: $300.00
  - Cylinder Heads Claim Rule: $1400.00 excluding rocker arms.
  - Transmission Claim Rule: $3000.00 excluding shifter.
- 4 Protester must participate in the same tech procedure as the truck being protested. Only the top five finishers will be eligible to participate in the protest procedure. The truck being protested must finish in front of the protester. No jumping trucks to protest. Protester may only protest two trucks in front of their own truck. If the protester is protesting two trucks, then both trucks must be protested for the same item(s). No more than two items can be protested at one time. If the truck is found to have an illegal part, it must be shown that the part has been removed before the start of the next race event.

- 5 Only the protested driver and two assistants are allowed in the tear down area to assist with the inspection process.
- 6 Any truck found to be illegal will forfeit all prize money and all points earned for that event. Any truck that fails to tear down for inspection, either under regular post race tech or protest conditions, will forfeit all prize money and all points earned for that event.
- 7 The Southeast Super Trucks Series reserves the right, in all events, to tear down the next truck in position until a legal truck is found. This will be at the discretion of the Race/Competition Director.
- 8 All CLAIM RULES have the same requirements as Protest procedures.
CASH ONLY at time of filing written protest and turned in to the Director of Competition within twenty minutes of race completion.
- 9 To make an anonymous claim, you may do so at any time prior to the start of the SEST pre-race activities. You must have CASH ONLY and desired claim part in writing turned in to the Series Administrator ONLY. This information will stay only with the Administrator and Race/Competition Director. The part will be claimed after race, but will not be available for pick up until the following week. You will be notified on Monday morning when pick up is possible.
- 10 The above said rules have been set by the Southeast Super Truck Series Committee. All rules are subject to change by the Committee at any time, but drivers will be notified of any changes
